Mission

The mission of The Friends of the Bohm is to create a dynamic venue for film, performing arts, and arts education activities to meet the needs of Albion, Michigan and the surrounding area. They aim to offer diverse artistic, cultural, educations programming that will stimulate community engagement and collaboration, foster accessibility to the arts, meet the highest expectations of patrons, artists and employees, and inspire individuals to expand their knowledge, involvement and support of the arts.

The Friends of the Bohm Theatre is a 501c3 nonprofit, established in 2010 to lead and support the rehabilitation efforts of Albion's Historic Bohm Theatre.

Your support is an investment in the Bohm Theatre and its place as an arts, film, and arts educational center for Albion and the greater Albion area.
